ALPHA DELTA PHI FRATERNITY

185TH ANNUAL CONVENTION

& LEADERSHIP TRAINING CONFERENCE

AUGUST 10-13, 2017 | MINNEAPOLIS, MN

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS IN MINNESOTA

WELCOME TO MINNESOTA!

Welcome to Minnesota! Thanks to the talents and dedication of our organizing committee and headquarters staff, we are excited to offer an educationally packed weekend of programs to advance your leadership skills and boost your chapter's productivity.

Over the course of the past few years, several brothers of the Minnesota Chapter and Alumni have been integral in the successful planning of this event so I want to personally thank them for their hard work.

Finally, I would like to thank the delegates and attendees - both alumni and undergraduate - for taking time out of their busy lives to join us this weekend. Taking time away from family and friends in the middle of summer is not easy, but we sincerely thank you for being so committed to the Alpha Delta Phi to join us.

While our conventions are meant to be informative and educational, they are also meant to be fun and social. Throughout the weekend I encourage you to step outside your comfort zone by making connections with people from other chapters and affiliates. Please remember that during this weekend, we all represent the fraternity, so respect towards the hotel, alumni center, chapter house and museum guests/staff is of the utmost importance. Anything less will not be tolerated, so please be responsible.

I hope you enjoy this weekend in the city and if you have suggestions on how we can better support your chapter, please let a staff or board member know - we are here to serve you! Thank you again for joining us this weekend and welcome to Minnesota!

TRANSLATION

Hail, Alpha Delta Phi
Prospering for eternity,
May you be able to grow
According to everything of victory.
The Crescent rising,
The Star even sparkling:
We will sing in celebration
a joyful song with you all.
Hither Calliope,
With all the Muses,
Dwells in perfect harmony
Gently to keep us together.
The Crescent rising,
The Star even sparkling:
We will sing in celebration
a joyful song with you all.
The (inner) temple of the fair and good!
To be standing for eternity:
We yearn your (entire) temple,
We yearn glory.
The Crescent rising,
The Star even sparkling:
We will sing in celebration
a joyful song with you all.

COVENANT OF THE ALPHA DELTA PHI FRATERNITY

You are admitted to the fellowship and privileges of The Alpha Delta Phi on condition of giving your assent to the articles of the following Covenant:

ARTICLE I. You do solemnly promise that you will perform promptly and faithfully all the laws and regulations enjoined by this Society, and, to the last extremity, you will support and defend what you conscientiously believe to be the spirit and intent of its Constitution.

ARTICLE II. You do solemnly promise that you will strive to cultivate in yourself a spirit of kindness, conciliation and good will towards every member of this Society, and that, whenever you may be reprov'd for a fault by any of your brethren, in that spirit prescribed by the Constitution, you will receive such reproof with gratitude, and that you will endeavor to profit by the same.

ARTICLE III. You do solemnly promise that in everything in which you shall stand related to this Society, you will guard strictly your conduct and thoughts; that on all occasions you will strive to cultivate an amiable temper, and kind, affable and cordial manners, together with everything that relates to your improvement as a social and moral being.

ARTICLE IV. You do solemnly promise that whenever any member of this Society shall ask of you a special and particular favor, provided only that such request be proper and lawful, you will use all proper and lawful means to oblige him; and further, that whenever you may meet a brother of this fraternity whether in or out of college, you will never fail to treat him with a particular and marked attention and respect.

ARTICLE V. You do solemnly promise that so long as you shall belong to the college of which you are now a member, you will set up for yourself a high standard of intellectual attainment; and that by a careful and diligent improvements of all your literary privileges, you will be faithful to yourself, and to the honor of this Society.

ARTICLE VI. You do solemnly promise that in that department of literature which has been or shall be assigned to you by the voice of this Society, it shall be the whole and sole object of your investigations to arrive at truth; and that you will not spare time, trouble, or research, and that you will do everything in your power to render your disquisitions elegant, pleasing, and instructive.

ARTICLE VII. You do solemnly promise that whenever you shall observe a fault in the character or conduct of any of your brethren which, in your opinion, may operate, directly or indirectly, to the injury of the individual or the interests of this Society, you will kindly and affectionately admonish him of the same.

ARTICLE VIII. You do solemnly promise that you will, under all circumstances and on all occasions, maintain the honor and interests of this Society, and that you will use all lawful means to safeguard its intellectual, moral, and social character; and to secure its permanent reputation and prosperity.

ARTICLE IX. You do solemnly promise that you will never, in any manner, either by word, look, or sign, or in any imaginable way, disclose or divulge, or cause to be disclosed or divulged, any of the acts, laws, designs, or its proceedings of this Society; and that you will do your utmost to draw a veil of perfect secrecy over all its concerns, until your connection with it shall be dissolved by death.

ARTICLE X. You do solemnly promise that with respect to every brother member of this Society, you will at all times and places, and under all circumstances, and on all occasions, do everything in your power to defend, support and maintain his moral and social character and his intellectual and literacy reputation; and that whenever he shall be unrighteously accused of malignantly slandered, you will repel the attack with an honest and manly indignation, and that whenever you may hear of false reports, which may operate to his injury, you will endeavor to prevent their further circulation in short in all things which pertain to his personal character; and his reputation with his associates and the world, you will espouse his cause as if it were your own, and that you will constantly exercise towards him a spirit of charity, kindness and fraternal love.

BANQUET GUEST OF HONOR - WILLIAM E. SMITH, HAM 1980

William "Bill" E. Smith was the fifth general manager for the Minnesota Twins Baseball Club. Smith served as GM from 2007-2011, during which the team won its two most recent division titles. He is widely known for his management during the construction and renovation of its spring training facility in Fort Myers, FL. Most recently, Smith oversaw the development of a players' academy in the Dominican Republic that is shared with the Philadelphia Phillies. Smith retired from the Twins organization in 2016.

Smith attended Hamilton College and was initiated into the Hamilton Chapter. He currently lives in Bloomington, MN, with his wife and their three daughters.

OFFICIAL CHAPTER DELEGATES

Each chapter shall designate one delegate and one alternate delegate who shall be student brothers of the accrediting chapter. Each recognized alumni organization shall also designate one alumnus delegate and one alternate delegate who shall be alumni brothers but who need not have been student brothers of the accrediting organization's chapter. The Credentials Committee shall determine voting eligibility.

ALPHA DELTA PHI EXPANSION

Alpha Delta Phi is engaged in a measured expansion program aimed at the top colleges and universities in North America. We limit the number of expansion projects that we undertake at any one time to insure that each new affiliate receives the resources and attention it needs to succeed.

Why start a new fraternity chapter? Perhaps the fraternity system at your college or university does not have a chapter that meets your needs. Perhaps you are excited by the prospect of founding an organization that will continue to positively affect the lives of men on your campus for many years to come. Perhaps you are part of a group of friends that wants to perpetuate that friendship beyond your college years. Those of us who have helped start a new chapter can tell you of the pride of accomplishment it can bring you.

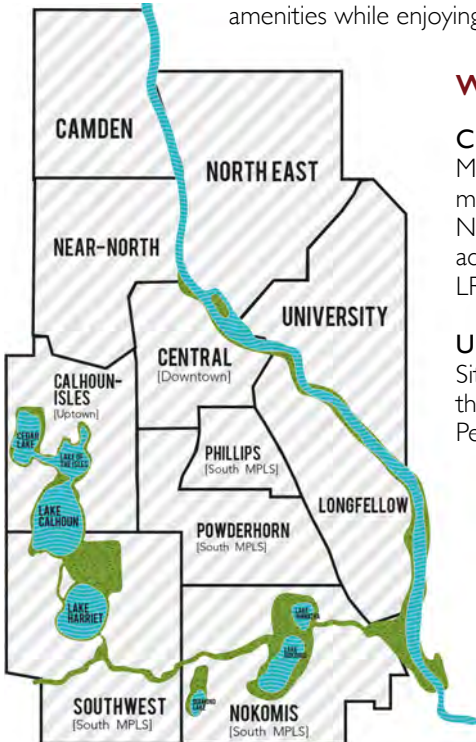

Why Alpha Delta Phi? We like to think of ourselves as somewhat unique in the fraternal world. We were founded as a literary society in 1832, and retain a commitment to that history. What do we mean by literary society? We expect each chapter to contribute to the intellectual atmosphere of their campus and to their members. Many chapters organize campus literary contests or speaking programs. We are more of a confederation than many fraternities, allowing each chapter a large degree of autonomy in how they meet the standards of Alpha Delta Phi, while maintaining a support network to assist them in reaching their goals.

ABOUT MINNEAPOLIS

With a metro area population of over 3.5 million, Minneapolis and its neighbor, Saint Paul, anchor the second largest economic center in the midwest United States after Chicago. Minneapolis lies on both banks of the Mississippi River; just north of the river's confluence with the Minnesota River; and adjoins Saint Paul, the state's capital. The city is abundantly rich in water; with thirteen lakes, wetlands, the Mississippi River, creeks and waterfalls, many waterways connected by parkways. It was once the world's flour milling capital and a hub for timber. The city and surrounding region is the primary business center between Chicago and Seattle, with Minneapolis proper containing America's fifth-highest concentration of Fortune 500 companies. As an integral link to the global economy, Minneapolis is categorized as a global city.

Noted for its strong music and performing arts scenes, Minneapolis has served as the launching pad for several of the 20th century's most influential musicians, such as Bob Dylan and Prince. Minneapolis is also one of a handful of cities to have a professional sports team in all four major national leagues - MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL.

Minnesotans take pride in their ability to "deal with" the snow, ice and cold weather of the winter months to be able to take advantage of the outdoor amenities while enjoying the warmth of summer.

WHERE TO EXPLORE

CENTRAL (DOWNTOWN)

Mix of restaurants, bars, nightclubs and live music venues. Popular areas include the North Loop and First Ave. areas. Easily accessible from the hotel via Green Line LRT.

UNIVERSITY

Site of the University of Minnesota and the Dinkytown & Stadium Village districts. Perfect for the younger crowd.

NORTHEAST

Central hub of the city's growing craft beer and food truck scene. If you're looking for a laid back vibe, this is your spot.

CALHOUN-ISLES (UPTOWN)

Rooftop bars on every corner. Also central to the chain of lakes if you're looking for outdoor activities.

ABOUT THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

The Board of Governors is made up of twelve Alumni Governors, elected for a three year term, and three Student Governors, elected annually by the Convention. The terms of the Alumni Governors are staggered to provide continuity. There are other restrictions on who may be elected to assure that no region or chapter may dominate the Board. No more than two Alumni Governors from the same chapter can serve at one time.

The Board of Governors generally holds four regular meetings each year. One meeting is at the Convention; others are held at various locations in the fall, winter, and spring - usually in locations with active chapters or affiliates.

The Governors elect the President, Vice President, and Treasurer of the Fraternity from among themselves. The President, with the Board's approval, appoints the Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, who may or may not be Governors.

If you or someone you know are interested in joining the Board of Governors, email a resume/CV along with the completed application (available at www.alphadeltaphi.org/governors) to office@alphadeltaphi.org.

HISTORY OF THE MINNESOTA CHAPTER

In the spring of 1890, a movement was first made by a small group of students at the University to obtain a charter for a chapter of the Fraternity. They presented a petition at the next convention, which was referred to the Johns Hopkins Chapter to investigate and report, but little was done.

As a result, however, the local alumni residing in Minneapolis and Saint Paul, at the request of this group, took the matter up and made a thorough investigation of all the men who desired to become charter members. They selected five men who organized themselves as a local society under the name of Alpha Delta Epsilon for the purpose of holding together until a charter could be obtained. At this time William Watts Folwell, Geneva 1857, the first President of the University of Minnesota, became interested and it was largely through his sponsorship that the Minnesota Chapter was founded.

A petition was formulated and signed by leading alumni in the Northwest and presented for the consideration of the convention held in Baltimore during May 1891.

On November 24, 1891, the Executive Council ordered the charter to be issued. Five charter members were initiated at this time under the auspices of the local alumni of the Twin Cities on February 22, 1892. This chapter had also been endorsed by many of the alumni associations, including those of Omaha, Chicago, Buffalo, and Cleveland. Indeed, at the initiation, there were forty-three members present, representing sixteen different chapters.

Owing to the fact that most of the leading fraternities had been represented in the University for several years prior to the chapter's installation and had built up a strong local body of young alumni in the Twin Cities, extra effort was required to maintain the high standards of Alpha Delta Phi. However, by keeping it as its watchword "quality and not numbers", the chapter has been able to maintain its position on the campus.

The chapter has been fortunate in having its own chapter house during all but the earliest part of its history. In 1925, the old house was razed and the present structure was erected on the same ground opposite the campus. In 2015, the chapter founded the Star & Crescent Foundation which is committed to restoring the aging chapter house as well as other historic structures in the neighboring community.
